When Anna Buday spoke at the March for Life in Dublin on May 6, 2024, she shared her heartwarming story about her daughter Esther, who has Down Syndrome. She emphasized how their world was turned upside down upon learning of Esther's condition, filled with uncertainties and fears about the future. However, they were blessed to discover that Esther would become an invaluable gift to them. Anna passionately implored everyone to embrace the unique beauty that individuals with Down Syndrome bring into our world. She called for solidarity in fighting against discrimination and advocating for a society where every person is valued, respected, and celebrated, regardless of genetic differences. The clear audio recording and transcript provided in French Catholic mass prayers such as "Our Father" could be useful to people traveling to France or French-speaking countries. Many priests volunteer on missions to places where they might have occasion to say the Catholic mass in French. I couldn't find a well-enunciated recording of the French mass, so I'm sharing this clear audio recording. Les caractères gras en italique représentent les parties dites par l'audience à voix haute. Le reste est dit par le prêtre. This includes: - Au nom du Père et du Fils et du Saint-Esprit.Amen (In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.) - La grâce de Jésus notre Seigneur, l'amour de Dieu le Père et la communion de l'Esprit Saint soient toujours avec vous. Et avec votre esprit. (The grace of Jesus our Lord, the love of God the Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be always with you. And with your spirit.) - Préparons-nous à la célébration de l'Eucharistie en reconnaissant que nous sommes pécheurs. Je confesse à Dieu tout-puissant, je reconnais devant mes frères, que j'ai péché, en pensée, en parole, par action et par omission ;oui, j'ai vraiment péché.C'est pourquoi je supplie la Vierge Marie, les anges et tous les saints, et vous aussi, mes frères, de prier pour moi le Seigneur notre Dieu. Que We ask that Almighty God have mercy on us; may He forgive our sins and guide us to eternal life. Amen, Lord, take pity. Lord, have mercy. O Christ, have mercy. O Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Glory be to God in the highest, and peace on earth among those He loves. We praise You, we bless You, we adore You, we glorify You, we give thanks to You for Your immense glory, O Lord God, King of heaven, God the Father almighty. O Lord, only Son, Jesus Christ. O God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father; who takes away the sin of the world, take pity on us. Who takes away the sin of the world, receive our prayer; You who are seated at the right hand of the Father, take pity on us; For You alone are holy. You alone are Lord. You alone are the Most High: Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen. The Lord be with you. And with your spirit. Gospel according to Saint ... Glory be to You, O Lord. Let us acclaim the Word of God. Praise be to You, O Lord Jesus. I believe in one God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, of all visible and invisible things. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, only Son of God, born of the Father before all ages: He is God, born of God, light born of light, true God, born of true God; begotten, not made, of the same nature as the Father; and through Him all things were made. For us men, and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the Holy Spirit, He took flesh from the Virgin Mary, and became man. Crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, He suffered His Passion and was laid in the tomb. He rose on the third day, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven; He is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory, to judge the living and the dead; and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, who is Lord and gives life; He proceeds from the Father and the Son; With the Father and the Son, He receives equal adoration and equal glory; He has spoken through the prophets. I believe in the Church, one holy, Catholic, and apostolic. I recognize only one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. I await the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen. Blessed art Thou, God of the universe, who givest us this bread, fruit of the earth and the labor of men; we present it to Thee: it will become the bread of life. Blessed be God forevermore! Thou art blessed, God of the universe, who givest us this wine, fruit of the vine and the labor of men; we present it to Thee: it will become the wine of the Kingdom. So be it, God, now and forevermore! Let us pray together at the moment of offering the sacrifice of the entire Church. For the glory of God and the salvation of the world. Amen. May the Lord be with you, and may He also be with your spirit. Let us lift up our hearts to the Lord. We turn our hearts to the Lord. We render thanks to the Lord our God. This is just and good. Truly, Most Holy Father, it is just and good to give You thanks always and everywhere, through Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ: for He is Your Living Word, by whom You created all things; it is He whom You sent as Redeemer and Savior, God-made-man, conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary; in order that He might accomplish until the end Your will and gather from among men a holy people that belongs to You. He stretched out His hands at the hour of His passion, so that resurrection might be made manifest. This is why, with the angels and all the saints, we proclaim Your glory by singing (saying) in one voice: Holy! Holy! Holy, Lord God of the universe! The heaven and the earth are filled with Your glory. Hosanna to the highest heavens. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna to the highest heavens. You, who truly are holy, you who are the source of all holiness, Lord, we pray: Sanctify these offerings by pouring out upon them Your Spirit: what become for us the body and blood of Jesus, the Christ, our Lord. At the moment when He was given over and entered freely into His passion, He took the bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying: "Take, and eat-all of you: this is my body given over for you." In like manner, at the end of the meal, He took the cup; again He gave thanks and gave it to His disciples, saying: "Take, and drink-all of you, for this is the cup of my blood, the blood of a new and eternal covenant that will be shed for you and for many in forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of me." It is great, the mystery of faith: We proclaim Your death, Lord Jesus; we celebrate Your resurrection; we await Your coming in glory. As we remember the death and resurrection of Your Son, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, we give You thanks, for You have chosen us to serve in Your presence. Humbly, we ask that having partaken of the body and blood of Christ, we be gathered by the Holy Spirit into one body. Remember, Lord, Your Church scattered throughout the world: Let it grow in Your charity with the Pope..., our bishop..., and all those who have charge of Your people. Also, remember our brothers who have fallen asleep... Que Dieu nous accueille dans sa lumière et nous réunisse avec les saints de tous les temps dans la vie éternelle. Nous implorons Sa bonté pour que, avec Marie, Mère du Christ, et les Apôtres, nous puissions chanter Son louange à travers Jésus-Christ, Son Fils bien-aimé. Notre Père qui êtes aux cieux, que Ton nom soit sanctifié. Nous demandons que Ta volonté soit faite sur la terre comme au ciel. Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour et pardonne-nous nos offenses comme nous pardonnons à ceux qui nous ont offensés. Nous te supplions, Seigneur Jésus Christ, d'accorder ta paix à ton Eglise, et conduis-la vers l'unité parfaite. C'est dans le règne de Dieu, dans la puissance de Dieu, et pour les siècles des siècles que tout honneur et toute gloire nous reviennent. Que la paix du Seigneur soit toujours avec vous et avec votre esprit. We are coming together on Facebook, Twitter, and Pinterest. Please join in! Some may think that our society values human dignity and equality highly today. This is true, but there's one type of event that stands out: meeting with royalty or government officials. In such situations, protocol is crucial and requires careful preparation. Similarly, when approaching the Lord in prayer, it's essential to be well-prepared and mindful of every detail. The Eucharist is a sacred appointment for Christians, marking the highest point of our faith and the source of countless blessings. To participate fully in this ritual, we must be prepared. The prayers shared here aim to guide all involved in the liturgy – from ordained ministers to laypeople and faithful participants – in developing a suitable inner disposition. As we reflect on the profound significance of sharing the Holy Body and Blood, delivered and poured out for humanity's salvation at each Eucharist, we can only marvel and express gratitude. Contemplating such an immense gesture of love, we are reminded that it is renewed and made available to us through Christ's sacrifice. This realization fills our hearts with admiration and thanksgiving. In this spirit, prayers of gratitude are also presented in this document, offering a means for us to cultivate spiritual growth by partaking in the Eucharist. By saying, as Saint Paul did, "It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me," we can transform ourselves into women and men of the liturgy. The Art of Celebrating: Before the new Roman Missal translation arrives, Vivre et Célébrer invites you to explore its riches. To get involved in the process, check out these resources: Formation website (French only) and books like "Discover the New Translation" by AELF, "Presentation of the New Roman Missal" with Cardinal Robert Sarah's introduction, and "Implementation of Our Father Phrasing". In September 2018, Canadian Catholic Bishops decided to replace the old French translation of Our Father with the new one on December 2, 2018. This change affects the wording "Ne nous laisse pas entrer en tentation". In Eucharistic Prayers II, III, and IV, it's essential to write in ink, in all Roman Missals, the name of Saint Joseph: "with blessed Joseph, her Spouse..."
